CHOOSING GODPARENTS

The responsibility of choosing godparents is a serious one that should be thought about, discussed and prayed about.

Please choose someone:

- whose everyday life reflects his/her faith;
- and who is willing to make a long term commitment to you and your child

"For the grace of Baptism to unfold, the parents' help is important. So too is the role of the godfather and godmother, who must be firm believers, able and ready to help the newly baptized - child or adult on the road of Christian life." (Catechism of the Catholic Church #1255).

Qualifications of godparents:

Church Law (Code of Canon Law Canons 873 to 874) states:

- There is to be only one male godparent or one female godparent or one of each.
- To be a godparent a person must:
 - be at least 16 years of age
 - be a Catholic who has been confirmed and has already received the most holy sacrament of the Eucharist and who leads a life of faith in keeping with the function to be taken on;
 - not be bound by any canonical penalty legitimately imposed or declared;
 - not be the father or mother of the one to be baptized.
